Indigenous peoples of Canada experience at a higher rate than that of the general population. 2. IDAM celebrates the achievements of Indigenous peoples living with disabilities and recognizes the valuable contributions they make to our communities socially, economically, and culturally every day. 3. Indigenous Disability Awareness Month was created right here in BC by British Columbia Aboriginal Network on Disability Society in 2015, and 2021 is it’s 7th anniversary! 4. IDAM is the only Indigenous disability specific awareness initiative of its kind in the world. 5. Our self advocacy group, SABF, proclaims and declares this month of November Indigenous Disability Awareness Month!
7	December is IDPD – International Day of Persons with Disabilities

Why we acknowledge:

1. To promote the well-being and welfare of people living with disabilities;
2. The United Nations called for an international day of celebration for people living with disabilities;
3. To be held on December 3rd of each year!
4. 2021's IDPD theme is, "Fighting for rights in the post-COVID era" and it is to acknowledge that people who live with disabilities are among the most affected by the COVID pandemic.
